FROM THE CHAIR

Our 25th Anniversary

This is a significant milestone for any organisation and it pleasing to report that we have thrived and continue to thrive. The plans for our celebrations for the 17th April will soon come to fruition. An event that I hope you will find very memorable.

Some of us will remember what we were doing 25 years ago. I had started work in Hong Kong and knew nothing of the u3a but fortunately there were those in Maldon with the energy and enthusiasm to start our u3a and they deserve much credit and thanks. As then, we still need ideas and enthusiasm to develop our u3a.

Now that Spring is here, we can look forward to enjoying the better weather in one or more of what might be called our "Outdoor Groups". These range from Bird Watching, the Garden group, and Astronomy to the light exercise of the Strollers Groups, Croquet, Petanque and Padel Tennis. All exceptionally good for the body and the mind. We are fortunate to have such an excellent choice.

Ken Hazell

FROM THE EDITOR

As Ken mentioned last month I am ready to handover the newsletter role to someone else. Until this is finalised and to maintain continuity until a successor is found please send contributions for next month to me in the normal way.

NEWS FROM THE EAST

Extract from March 2023

Film hopes for Maldon u3a author

AUTHOR Patrick Forsyth from Maldon u3a could have his novel Once a Thief turned into a television series or film after signing a contract.

Members will recall he spoke about it at the 2022 East of England Region Conference.

The story follows a young woman who takes on a job which leads her in “unforeseen directions and put her life in danger”.

Four of his novels are set in Maldon, with ordinary people caught up in mystery or crime.

Mr Forsyth has written more than 100 books which have been translated into 24 languages.

He said: “I have signed a contract allowing a screenplay to be written of the story. “It is encouraging that the story has prompted someone to want this,

“Although it may presently be a million miles from seeing it on television or in the cinema, well... you never know.

“I will try not to get too excited while keeping my fingers crossed.”

Ray Hardisty, PR and Media Adviser

DISCUSSION GROUP

If you have strong opinions, something to get off your chest or just a healthy interest in current affairs, this group may appeal.

Meeting every month (normally on the second Monday in the month at 2pm in Maldon) a small group debate matters of the day of general, personal or local interest.

The gatherings are informal, chatty and allow the occasional rant or digression.

Numbers need to be kept manageable, but currently there are vacancies, so why not give us a go?

LOCAL HISTORY GROUP

We had a marvellous talk by Neil Wiffen on March 27th when he took us back to the 14th century. He explained in detail how Essex was able to make a significant contribution towards supplying food such as wheat, malt, cider, ham, and cheese, for the armies of Edward III as he waged war on both Scotland and France especially from 1337. This was at the beginning of what became known as "The Hundred Years War" and at the beginning there were significant victories, notably at Crecy and Poitiers, a well fed army obviously paid off!!

Following on from Neil's talk for those of you who are interested in old maps, there is a talk by Peter Walker at the Essex Record Office on Saturday May 27th from 10.30am to 12 noon entitled "The Chapman and Andre 1777 map of Essex", Sylvia has details.

Our next meeting, for those who have registered, will be a visit to Colchester Castle Museum on Monday April 24th. We meet at the museum entrance at 1.40pm for the 2pm tour and will pay on the door. Members are asked to make their own way to Colchester and be aware of any uneven kerbs or paving slabs.

Please feel free to contact Kathy or Sylvia if you have any queries, so that no one has to travel alone.

Our next meeting at the Town Hall will be on Monday May 22nd at 2pm when Hannah Powell will give a talk on "The History of Perrywoods". Hopefully by then we will have had some nice gardening weather!!

Kathy and Sylvia

STROLLERS SUNDAY

The May walk will take place on Sunday 21st May in the Great Totham area and will be approximately three to four miles.

The walk will start and finish at the Prince of Wales pub where we will have lunch, meeting time 10.15am for a 10.30am start.

Please let me know if you will be joining the walk and whether or not you will be staying for lunch by Sunday 14th May.

PETANQUE GROUP

It is time to dust the cobwebs off those Petanque balls and head to the Petanque rink on Maldon Prom on a Thursday afternoon for a couple of hours or so of fun. With the forecast now for warmer days, we plan to call up the regulars to return. The first session of the 2023 season is scheduled for Thursday 4th May, hopefully the weather will be kind to us.

New players are always welcome to come and give it a try, why not come along and have a go. The group meets Thursday afternoon start time 2.00pm until around 4.00pm.

We only play if the weather is dry. The season is May to October, although we do play occasionally in the winter months if the weather permits.

BIRD WATCHING GROUP

Birdwatching at Tollesbury

April 1st, and it seemed like the record-breaking rain we endured through March would never end. Nevertheless, nine members of the birdwatching group headed for Tollesbury Wick Marshes, a 600-acre reserve run by Essex Wildlife Trust. The reserve – comprising coastal grazing marsh, sea walls and saltings – is a Wetland of International Importance among other national and international designations.

The rain eased off as we squelched our way – in suitable footwear – to the reserve's only hide for what turned out to be an enjoyable morning's birdwatching. Two “stars of the show” were a great egret and a marsh harrier. Great egrets were rare visitors to the UK but have become more common over recent decades, particularly in south-east England, with several pairs now breeding in Britain.

Marsh harriers were once common but declined as reedbeds were drained and many of these handsome birds were shot. The one we saw was a male, with distinctive grey wings and tail. This, our largest harrier, is mainly a summer visitor with more than 590 pairs now breeding in the UK as numbers recovered and is mainly to be seen in south-east England.

Ducks to be seen on the water included shovelers (so called after their large bills), tufted ducks, goldeneye and shelduck. The shoveler's long, broad bill contains rows of tiny spines for trapping the minute animals and plant remains which make up its diet. By October, most shovelers which breed in Britain have moved to France, Spain, or Italy. They are replaced here by others from northern Europe and Russia.

Black and white tufted ducks can dive to seven metres or more to find the molluscs on which they feed. In winter, they are joined by migrants from Iceland, Scandinavia, and north-east Europe. The clue to the goldeneye name is in its eyes, usually only seen close up. Most seen in Britain are winter visitors from northern Europe.

The black, white and brown of the shelduck can be seen on coasts all round Britain and favour old rabbit burrows for nesting. Among the ducks bobbed little grebes – unsurprisingly our smallest grebe – as a number of much larger brent geese swam by, soon no doubt to depart for their breeding grounds in Siberia.

Malcolm Case

MARITIME GROUP Programme 2023

Mon 1st May	No meeting – Bank Holiday
Mon 5th June	Talk by Jimmy Byam Shaw. This talk will cover Jimmy's experience gained sailing multihulls which handle somewhat differently to monohulls back in the sixties when offshore racing multihulls were being developed. Jimmy's intention to race in the solo transatlantic race, firstly as a career move as much as for the pleasure and then having got the ideal job, just for the pleasure and then having married Barbara it became surplus to requirements. The boat he designed, (and much of which he built), together with the study of the North Atlantic, the conditions it produces and of examples of other boats, with photos, produced to race in these conditions.
Mon 3rd July	Talk by Barbara Jones of Lloyds Register about the History of Lloyds over the past 260+ years.
Mon 7th August	Visit to Foxton Locks/Incline with a guided tour and a visit to the Museum. Lunch (not included) will be at a local pub – cost per person £35.00, this includes the coach, driver's gratuity, coach parking, guided tour and Museum visit.
Mon 4th September	Talk and updates by John Rayment on the Restoration of the Sailing Barge "Pudge".

Mon 2nd October	Talk by Simon Gregor who will take us on a virtual stroll along the Thames from Vauxhall to Westminster, uncovering some of London’s rich history along the way. Sometimes on the embankment, and sometimes diving into quaint side streets, this talk will explore not only big sights like the Palace of Westminster and the Tate Britain Gallery, but also some of the less well-known history lurking in the back streets, with the Thames itself providing a constantly-flowing thread linking the city together.
Mon 6th November	Talk by John Pomfrett on City of Lakes and Rivers – waterways in and around Berlin. Following a brief introduction to the early, largely natural river navigations that served Berlin from its founding in the 13th century, this talk traces the development of the canals and river navigations around Berlin, from the early canals of the 17th century, through the peak of expansion in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, to final completion of the Mittellandkanal in 2003, following re-unification of Germany. Having set the scene, we then take a tour along the present-day waterway system, starting with the complex network of waterways within the city, then looking at the links to the Baltic, the Elbe and the Rhein and upstream to the unique waterways of the Spreewald. We will see ports and palaces, locks, lakes and a lido, old and new boat lifts and many other points of interest in and around this fascinating city.
Mon 4th December	Talk by Simon Stephens of the National Maritime Museum Greenwich on “Model Boat building for the National Maritime Museum”. Followed by discussions on our 2024 programme and some Christmas cheer.

All meetings are held at The Blackwater Sailing Club, Basin Road, Heybridge Basin on the first Monday of the month, starting at 10.00am.

ART APPRECIATION GROUP

WE'RE ONLY HERE FOR VERMEER

Three intrepid members of the Art Appreciation group recently visited Amsterdam by Eurostar clutching much sought after tickets for the once-in-a-lifetime Vermeer Exhibition at the Rijksmuseum.

This was the largest exhibition of the artist's work ever mounted, 28 of his approximately 35 known and recognised paintings. The first and probably the last time ever for so many of his paintings to be in the same place at the same time.

The Girl with a Pearl Earring
- Vermeer

The Milkmaid - Vermeer

An added bonus was seeing Rembrandt's magnificent 'Night Watch' in an adjoining gallery.

The Nightwatch - Rembrandt

We also managed to pack in a canal trip, some rijstafel, the city's oldest church in Amsterdam which currently houses an austere sculpture installation, and a visit to the Van Loon House, the 1672 canalside home of a Flemish merchant which is now a superb museum retaining the original character of the house.

We managed not to get run over by the hordes of cyclists everywhere, constantly threatening the pedestrians!

Andy, Judith, and Pam

CROQUET GROUP

It is time to start thinking about those summer sports. The Croquet group's first game is scheduled for Wednesday 19th April at 2pm. Croquet is competitive yet sociable, enjoyable, active, and healthy.

The group meets on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday afternoons from April until October. There is a charge of £6.00 for the use of all equipment and we plan to provide a drink at the end of play. Please note that shoes with flat soles and no heels must be worn, your toes should be covered so no sandals please.

Maldon & District u3a play with the kind permission of Maldon Croquet Club, on the Club lawns at Hatfield Peverel Bowling Club, The Keith Bigden Memorial Ground, Wickham Bishops Road, Hatfield Peverel, Essex, CM3 2JL.

FILM GROUP

Starting with "A Simple Plan". From everyone's comments I think it can safely be said that it wasn't a particularly good film. Some of the acting was fairly good, particularly the character played by Billy Bob Thornton. The film apparently earned multiple awards and nominations, among them two Academy Award nominations, one for Best Supporting Actor (Thornton) and one for Best Adapted Screenplay. It, however, underperformed at the box office and from our reviews, it underperformed with us too. Score: 5

"Dark Waters" provided something more interesting as it was based on the true story of DuPont and the scandal surrounding the use of PFOA, a chemical with no reference in any medical textbooks. Perfluorooctanoic acid was used to manufacture Teflon and carpet flooring. DuPont had been running tests of the effect of PFOA for decades, finding that it causes cancer and birth defects, but did not make the findings public. As a film it was perhaps a bit dragged out, although Mark Ruffalo in the lead was good. What it did show was how one person is willing to take on a huge challenge to try to make a difference, sometimes to the detriment of their own career, family and health. Some similarities between this film and the Oranges and Sunshine film. Score: 7

Next time:

"Darkest Hour" is a 2017 war drama directed by Joe Wright and written by Anthony McCarten. The film is an account of Winston Churchill's early days as Prime Minister and the May 1940 war cabinet crises, depicting his refusal to seek a peace treaty with Nazi Germany amid their advance into Western Europe. It stars Gary Oldman as Churchill, alongside Kristin Scott Thomas as Clementine Churchill.

"Funeral in Berlin" is a 1966 British spy film by Guy Hamilton and based on the 1964 novel by Len Deighton. It is the second of three 1960s films starring Michael Caine as the character Harry Palmer. British secret agent Palmer is sent to Berlin by his superior

Colonel Ross to arrange the defection of a prominent Soviet intelligence officer. Palmer is sceptical but links up with Johnny Vulkan, an old German friend and former criminal associate, who now runs the Berlin station for British intelligence.

Next meeting is on Wednesday 26th April at 7.30pm via Zoom.
